

do you love the arts?
 then we would love
 your support of the arts – that way you can continue to enjoy the arts!

Music, painting, sculpture, dance, theater, poetry – the Arts enrich our lives. The Arts are a clear sign of a strong, healthy, successful community. The Arts help bring us together in many ways; they contribute to our quality of life, and have a positive impact on local businesses and government. You, too, can participate by helping us build an even better community through the Arts in Frederick County.

Why Become a Member of the Frederick Arts Council?

- to support the arts in Frederick County
- to assist artists, non-profit arts organizations, and the community through grants, scholarships, technical assistance, and marketing opportunities
- to provide support for the Cultural Arts Center of Frederick County (Including the Black Box Theater and Art Gallery)
- to support a vibrant Arts and Entertainment District in downtown
- to support Arts in Education initiatives
- to support the Frederick Festival of the Arts and other community arts events
- to advocate for the arts and the economic impact of the arts on Frederick County
- to receive valuable Membership Benefits
- to feel a sense of pride in supporting the local arts

The Frederick Arts Council counts on various support to accomplish the above tasks and rely on people like you to be partners in this work.
