Message from the FAC in the Time of COVID-19

Dear Artists, Arts Organizations, and Arts Lovers,

We want to support you in every way possible during this unusually challenging time.

We understand the complex challenges that many of our members are now facing due to the impact of the COVID-19 outbreak. The Frederick Arts Council is working hard to support artists and arts organizations in the face of these challenges. We are inspired by the many ways we've seen our community reach out and assist each other, and we're working to share those efforts and to identify new ways for our arts organizations to connect.

We admire how quickly our artists and arts organizations acted to keep themselves and others safe, reducing in-person tasks and postponing events even before it was required.

Some steps we have taken:

- We have been advocating for emergency funding at every level of government to ensure there are funds for artists and nonprofit arts organizations to weather the storm.
- We established a GoFundMe that continues to raise funds for emergency relief for local artists. The application is here. We are working as quickly as we can to respond to the urgent requests for support.
- We're exploring virtual peer gathering and learning spaces and invite you to share your knowledge and needs in this area by filling out this short survey.
- We are gathering resources and information on sources of emergency funding and on topics such as crisis management; moving programs online, distance learning; and more.
- Though we have closed our physical offices to work remotely, we are still available to help so please let us know what you may be struggling with or need or what you have to offer others (info@frederickartscouncil.org).
- We are re-evaluating upcoming Arts Council programming given current circumstances and have already had to postpone our Sky Stage season and delay the opening of our new arts center at 5 East Second Street. However, we are featuring Sky Stage performers online and initiating a virtual member spotlight series.

One of the silver linings of this experience is the explosion of creativity often shared online such as new virtual poetry reading groups and virtual concerts that have emerged. We've also seen a new appreciation for the role of the arts that can speak to transcendent topics and on matters of life and death --and which can also provide joy and entertainment when needed most.

We all share a common goal now to stay safe and help keep as many of our fellow human beings alive as we possibly can by staying home and putting others we may never know first. We are all on one team now and the bonds we are building across disciplines, fields, backgrounds, countries and circumstances are new connections and methods of working together that we can call on when this crisis is over and we reemerge into a new world united by a common goal.

In creativity, peace and safe keeping,
John Bekier, President & Louise Kennelly, Executive Director

COVID-19: Emergency Funds for Artists in Need

- 1) FAC's Frederick Artist Relief Fund -- Apply Here.
- 2) Community Foundation of Frederick County COVID-19 Emergency Relief -- The COVID Collaborative is administering a second phase of funding through a common grant application to support local eligible organizations impacted by COVID-19. Organizations can use this application to apply for emergency grants to support increases to demands in services and/or grants to support general operating expenses when revenues have been impacted by COVID-19-related closures.
- 3) National Artist Relief Fund -- a $10 million national emergency relief fund for artists and creative workers that will provide $5,000 no-strings-attached grants. It is intended for anyone who earns income from their creative or artistic practice and who has also been affected by COVID-19.
- 4) Small Business Administration Disaster Relief Loans -- In response to a request from Gov. Larry Hogan, the U.S. Small Business Administration is offering disaster relief loans to Maryland organizations of all sizes, including private, nonprofit entities, for-profit entities, and sole proprietorships. These low-interest, long-term disaster relief loans are available now, per a March 19 announcement by Gov. Hogan

- Economic Injury Disaster Loans program has been expanded to include a $10,000 grant upon application for qualifying businesses. Mortgage payments are an allowable use of the grant funds.

5) Small Business Administration Payment Protection Program -- The Paycheck Protection Program is a loan designed to provide a direct incentive for small businesses to keep their workers on the payroll. SBA will forgive loans if all employees are kept on the payroll for eight weeks and the money is used for payroll, rent, mortgage interest, or utilities.

6) National Endowment for the Arts CARES Act Grants -- The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act recognizes that the nonprofit arts industry is an important sector of America's economy. The National Endowment for the Arts will award funds to nonprofit arts organizations across the country to help these entities and their employees endure the economic hardships caused by the forced closure of their operations due to the spread of COVID-19.

Holding the Light

Gather up whatever is glittering in the gutter,
whatever has tumbled
in the waves or fallen
in flames out of the sky,

for it's not only our
hearts that are broken,
but the heart
of the world as well.
Stitch it back together.

Make a place where the day speaks to the night
and the earth speaks to the sky.
Whether we created God

or God created us

it all comes down to this:
In our imperfect world
we are meant to repair
and stitch together
what beauty there is, stitch it with compassion and wire.

See how everything
we have made gathers
the light inside itself
and overflows? A blessing.

Golden Mile In Focus

Golden Mile - In Focus is a public art project created by award winning artist Wing Young Huie alongside many local photographers, including nationally recognized photographer Ira Wexler.

Young Huie conducted interactive workshops at schools, cultural centers, ESL classes, and other locations throughout the Golden Mile of Frederick, MD. The photographs taken at these workshops along with the photographs sent to the Frederick Arts Council will be exhibited in Golden Mile In Focus, which will take place throughout the Golden Mile. Below is an installation image documenting "The University Avenue Project (2007-2010)" Young Huie created in Minneapolis.

Golden Mile - In Focus could not be more relevant than it is right now. As we navigate this pandemic we are uncovering new ways to interact and communicate, and it becomes increasingly important that we understand each other. Images of identity, culture and otherness will document our community, share our stories and unite us in a time of need. Please participate, share your voice and help us offer a hopeful and uplifting way to recover together.

Email photographs: info@frederickartscouncil.org or Upload to: <https://tinyurl.com/photo-project>.

The deadline for submitting images is April 20, 2020.

Help Us Name the Frederick Arts Council Center at 5 E 2nd Street!

What are your best ideas? Submit them here!

The Frederick Arts Council's historic property located at 5 E 2nd Street formerly served as a church and was built in 1871.

The Arts Council's intent for the property is to use it as a home base for the County's Public Art Program, as outlined in "Connections," Frederick's Public Art Master Plan; as a location for resident organizations; as an artist in residence site; as an indoor location for the variety of community arts programs and performances such as those found at Sky Stage.

The converted church and community arts center will house public art projects as well as administrative offices for many of the arts council's programs.

Free Range Humans to Open Kids' Performing Arts Space

Free Range Humans is opening a new kids performing arts space in the mall. We and our partners will be offering a range of performing arts classes and performances. The space consists of a 27'x14' classroom and a 38'x88' multi-purpose room. We'll have a 12'x20' stage, lobby space, flexible seating, and a dance floor. We haven't had the fire marshall out yet, but we expect the capacity for the stage space to be @250.

Teachers - if you have a class you'd like to offer to kids, let's talk. We do have availability.

Music/Dance/Other Studios - We are saving Friday and Saturday evenings, as well as some weekend daytime, for recitals, rentals, and performances. Let us know if you'd like to come check it out.

Everybody - both rooms are available as rentals, with the classroom having the greatest availability. It's a great size for meetings. Keep us in mind.

Parents - I hope you'll check out our classes, and let us know if there's something you'd like us to offer that you don't see!

We do still have three unclaimed weeks available for summer camps this week, so talk to us if you'd like to host one in our space.

Encouraging Maryland writers, poets, playwrights, and authors for 30 years

Author: James M. Cain

Genre: Roman Noir

"I merely try to write as the character would write, and I never forget that the average man . . . has acquired a vividness of speech that goes beyond anything I could invent . . ." James M. Cain

James M. Cain (July 1, 1892 – October 27, 1977) was an American author and journalist. He is considered one of the creators of the roman noir or noir genre which is associated with the hardboiled school of American crime fiction.

Cain was born into an Irish Catholic family in Annapolis, Maryland. The family moved to Chestertown, Maryland, in 1903. In 1910, Cain graduated from Washington College. By 1914, Cain had decided to become a writer. He began working as a journalist for the Baltimore American and then the Baltimore Sun.

Cain was drafted into the United States Army for the final year of World War I. He was assigned to France where he wrote for an army magazine. After returning from the war, he went to work as a journalist. He published his first novel, The Postman Always Rings Twice, in 1934. That book became a best seller and would go on to be made into a film in 1946 and in 1981. He wrote continuously until his death at the age of 85.

Genre: Roman Noir or Noir. Noir fiction is a subgenre of crime fiction. In this subgenre, right and wrong are not clearly defined, while the protagonists are seriously and often tragically flawed. Their speech is usually vivid.

A reading list includes: The Postman Always Rings Twice, Serenade, Mildred Pierce, Love's Lovely Counterfeit, The Butterfly, Sinful, the Magician's Wife, Rainbow's End, The Institute

Fun With Words - Maryland Writers' Association (MWA) invites you to have fun writing Roman Noir or Noir using up to 100 words. Pick a protagonist who is working on Maryland water/waterfront in the crime field and show their conflict between right and wrong while revealing they are also seriously or tragically flawed. Make their speech vivid, without using swear words. Submit your Fun With Words response to https://marylandwriters.org/Notable\_Maryland\_Authors by the 20th of the month and receive an MWA Fun With Words submission certificate. Selected responses will be published with next month's article.

The MWA is a 31-year old state-wide association (501c3) dedicated to encouraging and mentoring Maryland writers, poets, playwrights, and authors. Go to www.MarylandWriters.org for more information. MWA's membership ranges from those who write as a creative outlet to professional freelancers and published authors with writers aspiring to be published in the middle. In January 2020, MWA membership exceeded 700, a 300% growth from 225 members in 2016.

Trees on my Walk — A Visual Diary

April 3-26, 2020

Opening Reception Saturday, April 4 • 5-9pm

Artist's Talk Thursday, April 16 • 7-8:30 • nomagalleryfrederick.com

April 3-26, 2020

Opening Reception: Sat, April 4, 5-9pm

Artists' Talk: Thurs, March 16, 7-8:30pm

Harriet Wise is a longtime Frederick resident and photographer. Well known for 31 years of creating the Bach Calendar, she continues to be project- and idea-oriented and to devote part of every day to documenting the world around her.

The April Show at NOMA combines her love of light and shadow with a study of a number of trees seen on her daily walk in Baker Park. The importance of trees to our world and environment is well known. She has created a visual diary observing trees and their seasons. It is whimsical and in no way complete; a truly on-going daily discovery.

Two floors of Fine Art, Photography and Crafts

A photograph of the interior of the GWC Art Gallery. The room is a long, narrow hallway with white walls and a polished wooden floor. The walls are densely decorated with numerous framed artworks of various sizes and styles, including landscapes, portraits, and abstract pieces. Some frames are gold, while others are dark wood. In the center of the room, there is a long, low, dark leather tufted bench. A large, patterned rug covers the floor in the foreground. At the far end of the hallway, there is a doorway leading to another room, and a sign above the doorway reads "GWC". Track lighting is mounted on the ceiling, illuminating the space.
