Winter Fever

February 2 through March 31, 2019

Opening Reception, First Saturday, February 2nd from 5-9 PM

322 North Market Street, Frederick, MD 21701

Cabin Fever is what affects many people as they hibernate inside during the cold winter months. Winter Fever is how artists embrace the challenge to paint the colors of winter. Yes, there is little or no green in these vibrant works of art. The soft greys, blues, whites and pastels often show up in snow scenes and the barren landscape or in a subtle still life. The theme can be translated into assemblages and sculpture also with the cool tones of stone and paper collage. Gallery 322, invites you to experience, Winter Fever, with artists, Michael Douglas Jones, Jan Kaufman, Linda Kirvan, Anne Gibson Snyder, Ann Schaefer, Russell Schofield, Roberta Staat, and Homer Yost. So join us on First Saturday, February 2, 2019, from 5-9 PM for the Opening Reception, at 322 North Market St. Frederick, MD. Fire and Ice begins on Groundhog Day, all the better to celebrate Winter and look forward to Spring. Gallery 322 is open Saturdays and Sundays from 12-5 PM, or by appointment. Protection, Projection, Definition are all part of dealing with our own and other bodies. Body consciousness: form and fantasy are a huge part of growing up and that maturation process is lifelong with many chapters. Our bodies are our books. We crawl, totter, race and dance through each day of pages together and alone. Artistic representations of human face and figure have charted our growth as a species. This is visually recorded time picturing The Hunt, tools of daily living, and quest for the unknown through ceremony. All people, all through time have these commonalities. We are all different. We are all the same.

In 2015, Gundars Osvalds discovered in his basement the negatives and contact sheets of photographs he documented in 1963 of the Vinegar Hill neighborhood. He showed the contact sheets to Dr. Andrea Douglas, the director of the Jefferson School African American Heritage Center, in Charlottesville, Virginia. She was delighted. "The first thing I thought was that people need to see these images. When you look at most of the other images of Vinegar Hill they show just the buildings. These pictures show the human element within Vinegar Hill." The result is an exhibit at the Center and a published exhibit catalog.

A Catalog of photographs with articles on the history of Vinegar Hill will be available at the Opening Reception and at osvaldsphotography.com

Dr. Scot French, the Director of the Vinegar Hill Memoryscape Project, led University of Virginia students on a project documenting Vinegar Hill. His view of the images: "The photos represent a unique contribution to the visual record of life in the Vinegar Hill. Images of the buildings had been captured during the redevelopment elsewhere, but here through young Osvalds' viewfinder we see the people of Vinegar Hill up close, at home, at work, and at play, on the main thoroughfares and back streets of the neighborhood."
