Artist Thomas Faison presents on "Phase Change"

The FAC hosted an artist talk in conjunction with the new Pop-Up Gallery featuring the work of artist Thomas Faison. The talk was held at New Spire Stages at 15 West Patrick Street. Highlights included a screening of Tom's film currently on view in the installation at 11 West Patrick Street and a dynamic conversation about climate change, among other topics.

Sponsors of the event and of the artwork include the NEA, M&RR, and the Ausherman Family Foundation.

Visit the installation at 11 W Patrick Street during business hours on weekdays and from 12-8 pm on Saturdays.

Artist Thomas Faison is a filmmaker and installation artist living and working in Baltimore, though he is a Frederick native. He returned in early 2018 for a solo show, entitled "Unified Dissonance," at the Blue Elephant Gallery in the Griffin Art Center, and his films have been featured in film showcases and festivals in Baltimore, Ann Arbor, Chicago, and Frederick. His installation artwork has been featured in artist run spaces throughout Baltimore and he is the co-founder of the Baltimore Student Film Showcase, now operating within the Maryland Film Festival.

ACADEMY FOR THE FINE ARTS SEEKS SUMMER AND SPRING INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES FOR HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS

Students who are in their third year of studies at the Academy for the Fine Arts are required to complete a Capstone Experience which can take the form of a project or an internship. The AFA is seeking internship possibilities for these students who have spent their time studying the areas of dance, music, theatre, or visual art. The internship would be unpaid and the hours can be flexible. The purpose of the internship is to:

- Provide real world experience in preparation for the post-secondary stage.
- Connect classroom teaching to authentic arts based careers.
- Build leadership, collaborative, and reflective skills in students as they weigh various post-secondary options.
- Provide students a network of working professionals and community partners.

For a full description of the Capstone Experience, click here .

Capstone Internships should provide at least 3–5 hours of work for students per week. Openings may be forwarded to:

"From Brain to Bookshelf" - 2019 Regional Writing Conference

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Baltimore, Maryland, December 12, 2018

James Brewster - 202-557-8097

Gladtodoit@gmail.com

The Maryland Writers' Association (MWA) announces that Crystal Wilkinson and Chuck Sambuchino are the keynote speakers at the 2019 Regional Writers Conference titled "From Brain to Bookshelf" being held March 29-31, 2019 at the BWI Airport Marriott.

Crystal Wilkinson, an author and a professor at the University of Kentucky, earned the 2016 Ernest J. Gaines Prize for Literary Excellence for her novel, The Birds of Opulence. A memoirist and feminist poet, Wilkinson will give the keynote address at the Friday evening banquet and present an intensive session on Sunday morning about mining autobiography to write moving, memorable fiction.

Chuck Sambuchino, a "how to get published" expert, edited the Guide to Literary Agents and the Children's Writer's & Illustrator's Market (2017) and the Guide to Literary Agents Blog, one of the biggest blogs in publishing. He is also the bestselling author of, How to Survive a Garden Gnome Attack and a former staffer at Writer's Digest. His Friday afternoon intensive session will discuss everything a writer wants and needs to know about getting and working with an agent. On Saturday, he will host an agent panel and give the keynote speech at the luncheon.

The conference offers over 20 workshops, organized into tracks that will educate and motivate poets and fiction and non-fiction writers alike and encourage them to continue their work and finish their projects. "The tracks are designed to help writers of every genre and at any level develop their writing craft regardless of where they are in their writing journey," said Eileen Haavik McIntire, MWA president and author. "Writers who attend the conference always move forward with their craft!"

Literary agents representing Fine Print Literary Management, Donald Maass Literary Agency, L. Perkins Agency, and Bookends Literary Agency will hear author's pitches and offer advice through panel discussions.

Registration is now open for the conference with special pricing through December 31st. For more information about the conference, please visit the "events" page at www.marylandwriters.org or contact info@marylandwriters.org.

Winter Fever

February 2 through March 31, 2019

Opening Reception, First Saturday, February 2nd from 5-9 PM

322 North Market Street, Frederick, MD 21701

Cabin Fever is what affects many people as they hibernate inside during the cold winter months. Winter Fever is how artists embrace the challenge to paint the colors of winter. Yes, there is little or no green in these vibrant works of art. The soft greys, blues, whites and pastels often show up in snow scenes and the barren landscape or in a subtle still life. The theme can be translated into assemblages and sculpture also with the cool tones of stone and paper collage. Gallery 322, invites you to experience, Winter Fever, with artists, Michael Douglas Jones, Jan Kaufman, Linda Kirvan, Anne Gibson Snyder, Ann Schaefer, Russell Schofield, Roberta Staat, and Homer Yost. So join us on First Saturday, February 2, 2019, from 5-9 PM for the Opening Reception, at 322 North Market St. Frederick, MD. Fire and Ice begins on Groundhog Day, all the better to celebrate Winter and look forward to Spring. Gallery 322 is open Saturdays and Sundays from 12-5 PM, or by appointment.
