Come Visit "Phase Change" In February!

Saturday, February 2nd, 12-9 pm
Saturdays 12-8 throughout February
11 W Patrick Street

Frederick's newest gallery features a dynamic art installation by artist Thomas Faison, called Phase Change. This multi-media installation tells the story of water, gas, ice, and us articulated in video art, sculpture, music, and hybrids of these mediums. The artwork is made possible by the NEA, M&RR, and the Ausherman Family Foundation.

Artist Thomas Faison is a filmmaker and installation artist living and working in Baltimore, though he is a Frederick native. He returned in early 2018 for a solo show, entitled "Unified Dissonance," at the Blue Elephant Gallery in the Griffin Art Center, and his films have been featured in film showcases and festivals in Baltimore, Ann Arbor,
Chicago, and Frederick. His installation artwork has been featured in artist run spaces throughout Baltimore and he is the co-founder of the Baltimore Student Film Showcase, now operating within the Maryland Film Festival.

DISTRICT Arts

Contemporary Art in the Historic District

Call for Artists: FIVE and DIME

DISTRICT Arts is a new contemporary art gallery that is housed in an old McCrory Store in the heart of downtown Frederick, MD. For our first special event, we are pleased to announce “FIVE AND DIME,” a juried exhibition that honors the heritage of the building we occupy but in a way that explores the relationships of these iconic American stores and their towns with the dramatic use of color and intensity. Norman Rockwell enters the 21st century? Maybe. Or maybe Marc Trujillo looks back and reimagines the lunch counter.

The works of 15 artists will be featured reflecting a variety of media, styles and interpretations.

The exhibition will open on Wednesday, April 10, 2019 and close on Sunday, May 12, 2019. An opening reception will take place on Saturday, April 13, 2018 from 3-5PM with awards presented at 4PM.

We are accepting submissions for jurying until February 28, 2019.

Protection, Projection, Definition are all part of dealing with our own and other bodies. Body consciousness: form and fantasy are a huge part of growing up and that maturation process is lifelong with many chapters. Our bodies are our books. We crawl, totter, race and dance through each day of pages together and alone. Artistic representations of human face and figure have charted our growth as a species. This is visually recorded time picturing The Hunt, tools of daily living, and quest for the unknown through ceremony. All people, all through time have these commonalities. We are all different. We are all the same.

In 2015, Gundars Osvalds discovered in his basement the negatives and contact sheets of photographs he documented in 1963 of the Vinegar Hill neighborhood. He showed the contact sheets to Dr. Andrea Douglas, the director of the Jefferson School African American Heritage Center, in Charlottesville, Virginia. She was delighted. "The first thing I thought was that people need to see these images. When you look at most of the other images of Vinegar Hill they show just the buildings. These pictures show the human element within Vinegar Hill." The result is an exhibit at the Center and a published exhibit catalog.

Dr. Scot French, the Director of the Vinegar Hill Memoryscape Project, led University of Virginia students on a project documenting Vinegar Hill. His view of the images: "The photos represent a unique contribution to the visual record of life in the Vinegar Hill. Images of the buildings had been captured during the redevelopment elsewhere, but here through young Osvalds' viewfinder we see the people of Vinegar Hill up close, at home, at work, and at play, on the main thoroughfares and back streets of the neighborhood."
