Calling All Plein Air Painters! Join Us to Paint at Art in the Park!

Art in the Park is an annual event that brings sports and the arts together, with an art-themed Frederick Keys baseball game at Harry Grove Stadium. This year's event will be held at the Friday, August 30th Keys game at 7 pm.

We are looking for plein air painters to paint in the stadium during the game, which should last for about 2-3 hours. After the game is over, your completed paintings will be auctioned off to benefit the Frederick Arts Council and future arts programming throughout the Frederick community. You keep 60% of painting proceeds. And you get a ticket to the game!

If you're interested, please email the Arts Council at info@frederickartscouncil.org with "Art in the Park Plein Air" in the subject line, or call 301-662-4190 .

This is a unique opportunity to give back while doing what you love most!

Love, or Something Better: New Work by Ash Cheshire and Jillian Abir MacMaster

The upcoming art exhibition Love, or Something Better explores the complexity of human connection and self-reflection on queer relationships, sexuality, and identity. Both Ash Cheshire and Jillian Abir MacMaster manipulate found objects to dissect their navigations through love, sex, and mental health. Cheshire utilizes antique art and sculpture with text and abrasive paint application. MacMaster manipulates images from vintage women's health and beauty publications using a document scanner to visually and thematically warp and collage the original content.
