COVID-19: Frederick County Nonprofits Eligible To Apply for Emergency Loans

Nonprofits are eligible to apply for emergency loans through the Small Business Administration (SBA). This program designation recognizes the catastrophic impact that shutdowns are having resulting from the Coronavirus pandemic.

This program, administered by the SBA, offers emergency loans at a deeply discounted interest rates for businesses and nonprofits covered by national declarations.

The Corona Virus Stimulus Package, set to be voted on by Congress Friday morning, may make SBA loan principals forgivable under certain requirements related to payroll costs/retention of workers.

Unlike other situations, a business does NOT need to have been turned down by a commercial lender in order to apply.

This program could offer critical assistance.

Please follow the link below to begin the process.
Contact the Frederick County Chamber of Commerce if you have questions.

Virtual Arts Content & Events!

The coronavirus has disrupted our lives in this unusual time. A silver lining, though, has been our ability to use technology to intentionally create community, and carry on the arts!

Check out this master public list of Maryland-based virtual arts events compiled by the Maryland State Arts Council, to continue your arts and cultural engagement during quarantine. (You can email msac.commerce@maryland.gov to submit your own!)

FAC's Sky Stage is also dedicated to keeping us creatively connected as we stay safe inside. Follow Sky Stage on Facebook (@SkyStageFAC), Instagram (@sky_stage) and Twitter (@SkyStageMD) in the coming days of continued social-distancing to enjoy videos of past performances, and announcements and shares of artists' live-streaming events.

Thank You For Your Support Thus Far!

Still Open: The Frederick Artist Relief Fund

If you love the arts in Frederick, please consider pitching in to our relief fund. The arts have been very good to this community. If you take care of the arts, the arts will take care of you.

The Frederick Artist Relief Fund will award grants of $250-$500 to individual artists who live in Frederick County and whose creative practices and incomes are being adversely impacted by Coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19). This fund is for individual artists only, not organizations or nonprofits.

To donate or learn more about grant eligibility, visit the GoFundMe.

Please spread the word on Facebook and among your contacts.

Golden Mile In Focus

Get Creative & Submit Your Photos!

The Frederick Arts Council has recently launched a public art project on the Golden Mile with award-winning photographer Wing Young Huie. Young Huie conducted interactive workshops at schools, cultural centers, ESL classes, and other locations throughout the Golden Mile of Frederick, MD. The photographs taken at these workshops along with the photographs sent to the Frederick Arts Council will be exhibited in Golden Mile In Focus, which will take place throughout the Golden Mile.

Although unfortunately due to the COVID-19 pandemic it is currently difficult to photograph outside, this project has become an even more important way to connect us in crisis and offer support to our community! Quarantines will enable us to understand our family and friends in different ways and document our reality through a new lens. Please participate!

If you already have images taken on the Golden Mile please send them in - or or please take photo images of what culture means to you whether it's a meal, a game, a hobby or a loved one.

Email photographs: info@frederickartscouncil.org or

Upload them: <https://tinyurl.com/photo-project>

The deadline for submitting images is April 20, 2020.

Some Additional Photography Prompts:

Shifting Identities and Perspectives

Take a photograph or two of somebody's shifting identities and perspectives or your own.

Are you different depending on where you are, who you are with, what you are eating, what you are thinking or in other ways? Do you act, dress, walk or talk differently? When are you what others want you to be? When are you the most you? When or where do you most belong?

Culture and Identity

Photograph someone - and come back with a story you did not know about their culture or cultures and how they define themselves. The story could be from your point of view or the point of view of the person in the photo. It could be a description, an essay, a poem or any creative form you'd like.

What if?

What is your 'what if?' Photograph someone whose life you could have had and get their story. Or photograph someone who is doing what you aspire to be.

Chalk Talk

Ask someone to tell you something about themselves you would not know by looking at them and write it on a small chalkboard

"My first published article after graduating from the University of Minnesota with a B.A. in journalism and some meager self-taught photography skills, was on my father. This was the start of my career. It was the most intimate experience I ever had with him. Since then I have photographed thousands of people. Photographing all of those strangers is not that much different than photographing my father, who was a bit of a stranger to me." - Wing Young Huie

If you are a business or property owner on the Golden Mile and would like to partner on this project by offering space as part of this community-wide exhibition, please contact info@frederickartscouncil.org.

Help Us Name the Frederick Arts Council Center at 5 E 2nd Street!

What are your best ideas? Submit them here!

The Frederick Arts Council's historic property located at 5 E 2nd Street formerly served as a church and was built in 1871.

The Arts Council's intent for the property is to use it as a home base for the County's Public Art Program, as outlined in "Connections," Frederick's Public Art Master Plan; as a location for resident organizations; as an artist in residence site; as an indoor location for the variety of community arts programs and performances such as those found at Sky Stage.

The converted church and community arts center will house public art projects as well as administrative offices for many of the arts council's programs.

In Progress: Mural at Emmitsburg Community Pool

FAC is happy to share progress pictures from the mural ongoing at Emmitsburg Community Pool. Artist Tim Knepp is brightening the wall of the pool building with a mural that will greet swimmers when the pool opens this summer. Special thanks to Emmitsburg Town Planner Zach Gulden for his collaboration on this public art project.

Do you have an idea for a public art project in Frederick?

If you have a project idea that you would like to see considered for FAC's annual plan, please fill out the nomination form linked below, and email to info@frederickartscouncil.org with "Public Art Nomination" in the subject line.

Feel free to get in touch with FAC for any questions. Please refer to the Public Art Master Plan for information about the public art execution process as well as categories of art FAC is looking for.

Art Exhibit Celebrates Career of Joyce Michaud

Frederick, MD 21701

WHAT

High Point: A Retrospective of Joyce Michaud's Work

WHEN

Feb. 13 through April 5

Gallery open 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. daily

Reception: Feb. 14, 5-7 p.m.

WHERE

Hood College

Whitaker Campus Center Gallery

401 Rosemont Ave.

DETAILS

Joyce Michaud is the former director of ceramic arts at Hood College. She started the ceramic arts program at Hood and recently retired after 25 years of service to Hood. "High Point" looks at Michaud's development as an educator and artist as she has made her mark in the field of ceramic arts.

Curated by Natalia Kormeluk, the exhibit covers a broad time frame in Michaud's artistic career, including her undergraduate work in painting and printmaking; her thesis work in ceramics, with research on structural strength in the wheel-thrown form; and her teaching and professional career as a ceramic artist. Her journey has taken her across the globe to Aberystwyth, Wales, and Yixing, Jiangsu Province, China, where she presented her research and taught workshops. Her work is found in collections worldwide. It is at Hood, though, where students experienced her passion and tenacity in building the ceramics program that impacted many and created a touchstone, or standard of excellence, in the field of ceramic arts.

"Inspired by Claire" Exhibit Opens April 19 A Collaboration of the Frederick Art Club, Heritage Frederick, and Hood College

Sunday, April 19th, 3-5 pm
Heritage Frederick
24 E Church Street

An exhibit featuring original artwork inspired by the life and work of iconic fashion designer Claire McCardell will open Sunday, April 19 at Heritage Frederick, 24 E. Church Street in downtown Frederick, Maryland. The artists behind the works on display-representing a variety of mediums-are all members of the Frederick Art Club, one of the oldest organizations of its kind in the nation. The art exhibit, managed by art club member Marion Griffin, will continue through May 30.

The public is invited to the opening reception, 3-5 p.m., which for that afternoon only will also feature original McCardell fashions and memorabilia from Heritage Frederick, Hood College and private collections. Wine, non-alcoholic beverages, and light refreshments will be offered. Admission to the opening is free.

The opening will be preceded, at 2 p.m., by a special appearance by Elizabeth Evitts Dickinson, award-winning writer and McCardell aficionado who has been published in the New York Times and the New Yorker. Dickinson will share insights and anecdotes about McCardell gained through extensive research for her definitive Washington Post Magazine story "A Dress for Everyone" that tells the designer's story from her youth in Frederick through her rise to renown in the fashion industry. Limited seating is available for this program. To reserve, email mccardellproject@gmail.com by April 15. A $20 donation is payable at the door.

Call to Artists: Academy for Fine Arts Children's Summer Camp

The Academy for the Fine Arts is partnering with City Youth Matrix to host a Summer Arts Camp for children going into grades 3-5 at Gov. Thomas Johnson High School from June 29th-July 2nd.

Each day of camp will feature one 45 minute assembly with a featured artist or performance. We would love to have each day focus on different art focus like dance, music, visual art, or theatre.

If you are interested in presenting or performing as part of this camp, please contact jonathan.kurtz@fcps.org. To find out more about the camp, please visit www.cityyouthmatrix.com and feel free to spread the word!

Presentations should be appropriate and engaging for late elementary students, be approx. 45 minutes in length. A $150 honorarium will be provided.

Free Range Humans to Open Kids' Performing Arts Space

Free Range Humans is opening a new kids performing arts space in the mall. We and our partners will be offering a range of performing arts classes and performances. The space consists of a 27'x14' classroom and a 38'x88' multi-purpose room. We'll have a 12'x20' stage, lobby space, flexible seating, and a dance floor. We haven't had the fire marshall out yet, but we expect the capacity for the stage space to be @250.

Teachers - if you have a class you'd like to offer to kids, let's talk. We do have availability.

Music/Dance/Other Studios - We are saving Friday and Saturday evenings, as well as some weekend daytime, for recitals, rentals, and performances. Let us know if you'd like to come check it out.

Everybody - both rooms are available as rentals, with the classroom having the greatest availability. It's a great size for meetings. Keep us in mind.

Parents - I hope you'll check out our classes, and let us know if there's something you'd like us to offer that you don't see!

We do still have three unclaimed weeks available for summer camps this week, so talk to us if you'd like to host one in our space.

NOMA's March exhibition showcases the installation work of Virginia Sperry and Jim Roberts. The show, titled occupied space, will feature two separate installations, one by each artist.

Sperry's installation, Filament, takes a common material to a new level of experience.

From the detailed, abstract photography of tiny pieces of yarn to the bigger than life waterfalls made from strands of yarn hanging from the ceiling, this installation challenges the viewer's preconceptions of this medium.

Roberts' installation delves into the current political milieu with his work, anatomy of a lie.

Showing the various stages of how a lie can take form and spread, the piece is a 3-dimensional illustration of the attacking and discrediting of factual information by laying siege to the 4th estate.

Harriet Wise is a longtime Frederick resident and photographer. Well known for 31 years of creating the Bach Calendar, she continues to be project- and idea-oriented and to devote part of every day to documenting the world around her.

The April Show at NOMA combines her love of light and shadow with a study of a number of trees seen on her daily walk in Baker Park. The importance of trees to our world and environment is well known. She has created a visual diary observing trees and their seasons. It is whimsical and in no way complete; a truly on-going daily discovery.
