Now Introducing FAC Member Features

Individual artists and artist organizations who are FAC members will be highlighted in our newsletter and on our social media. Artists and organizations are selected by staff in no particular order. Members, we thank you in advance for your patience as we make our way to your feature. You will be contacted to verify information before posting.

INDIVIDUAL ARTIST FEATURE

Painting

Kristie has been creating art her whole life, mostly as a hobby and means for self-understanding. Her artwork focuses on textures and layers that tell a story. Using paint, paper and wood, each piece begins by thinking of the story that will be conveyed. She is continually drawn to the shapes of letters, and to certain geometries, especially squares and triangles. There's something very satisfying about turning language into visual elements.

FREDERICK EXPERIMENTAL FEMA
MUSIC ASSOCIATION

Frederick Experimental Music Association is an all-volunteer 501c3 non-profit dedicated to the presentation of all forms of experimental music, including improvisation, new compositional methods, and other emergent forms of collaboration, by artists who prioritize discovery and diversity.

ADMIN@POINTOFDEPARTURE.ORG

Supported by the Delaplaine Foundation, FEMA's spring series at Frederick YMCA Arts – String Theories: New Music for String Instruments – begins on February 22nd with violinist Jason Kao Hwang and pipa player Sun Li. It continues March 29th with violinist Terry Jenoure and pianist Angelica Sanchez, and concludes April 19th with harpist Jacqueline Kerrod and guitarist Joe Morris. Each 8pm concert will be preceded by a conversation between the artists and author and FEMA founder Bill Shoemaker at 7:30.

Frederick Cultural Asset Survey and Art at City Hall

The City of Frederick is embarking on an arts and culture strategic planning process. To begin, the City is excited to ask residents to help identify the cultural touchstones — formal and informal arts and culture-related organizations, businesses, venues, local landmarks, and more — that mean something to you. Help create a community-developed list of places you visit and resources you use that have cultural value to you.

Art in City Hall Program

Art in City Hall | The City of Frederick, MD - Official Website \(cityoffrederickmd.gov\)

Now accepting proposals for 2025! The City of Frederick's Art in City Hall program is administered by the Office of the Mayor, Department of Arts and Culture. The program presents rotating exhibitions throughout the year, providing opportunities for the public to view artwork from the City's collection as well from local arts and culture organizations, non-profits, schools, libraries, and other community groups in the public areas of City Hall. The Office of the Mayor is committed to highlighting historically underrepresented communities. Exhibitions are open and free for the public and visitors and displayed for a period of one to three months.

FAC Member Alice Hannington Read releases book The Secret Fairies of Frederick

This book is a love letter to author Alice Hannington Read's hometown of Frederick, Maryland. The Secret Fairies of Frederick conjures fanciful sprites who have loved and watched over the townspeople from afar for generations. Clever, mischievous, yet always loving fairies dust the Star Spangled Banner, The Great Frederick Fair, the picturesque covered Bridge and other landmarks of this beautiful town. History and whimsy dance together to delight children of all ages. The book is now available on BookBaby or contact the author for a signed copy!

Artist Opportunity: Artist of the Month Program with Cowork Frederick

Cowork Frederick's Artist of the Month program supports up-and-coming local Frederick County artists by providing them an opportunity to exhibit and sell their work without the usual commission or fees. The program also brings ever-changing local art to the walls of Cowork Frederick for a more creative, vibrant work environment.

As part of the program, artists participate in a Frederick Artists Night (FAN) event with an exhibit and reception open to the public, along with live music from local singer-songwriters.

Cowork Frederick is particularly interested in artists who may not have had a chance to have an exhibition of their own yet.

CALL FOR ART

We invite artists to submit their work for an upcoming art exhibition addressing community impact and environmental justice. We seek art that explores the intersection of environmental challenges and social inequities, focusing on the human stories behind environmental harm and resilience. This exhibition endeavors to amplify the voices of those affected by environmental harm and highlight the resilience, struggles, and creativity of impacted communities.

Eligibility:

- Open to all artists 18 and older currently residing in the DMV area.
- Acceptable mediums include paintings, sculptures, and photography.
- Artwork must be created within the last five years and align with the exhibition's theme.
- Submissions from underrepresented voices, especially those from impacted communities, are strongly encouraged.

SUBMIT YOUR ENTRIES ON OUR WEBSITE BY MARCH 9TH, 2025

Selected artworks will be exhibited at the Shannon and Michael Priddy Library, The Universities at Shady Grove from March – April, 2025.
