Congratulations to our 2024 Poetry Out Loud Semifinalists!

Maryland semifinalists have been announced for Poetry Out Loud, a national arts education program that encourages the study of great poetry by high school students. The semifinalists are the winners of regional competitions hosted in February by the Maryland State Arts Council (MSAC) and produced by DewMore Baltimore. The students who placed first, second, and third at the regional competitions will compete in the Poetry Out Loud State Competition on March 16, 2024, at 1 p.m. at the Baltimore Museum of Art in Baltimore City. The event is free and open to the public.

Artist Opportunity: Artist of the Month Program with Cowork Frederick

Cowork Frederick's Artist of the Month program supports up-and-coming local Frederick County artists by providing them an opportunity to exhibit and sell their work without the usual commission or fees. The program also brings ever-changing local art to the walls of Cowork Frederick for a more creative, vibrant work environment.

As part of the program, artists participate in a Frederick Artists Night (FAN) event with an exhibit and reception open to the public, along with live music from local singer-songwriters.

Cowork Frederick is particularly interested in artists who may not have had a chance to have an exhibition of their own yet.

Interested? Apply at <https://coworkfrederickfoundation.org/artist-of-the-month-sign-up/>.

Munro Leaf - Ferdinand the Bull and Wee Gillis

Author: Munro Leaf

Genre: Children's Books

"Early on in my writing career I realized that if one found some truths worth telling they should be told to the young in terms that were understandable to them." Munro Leaf

Munro Leaf was born on December 4, 1905 in Hamilton, Maryland, but was raised in Washington, DC. He earned a BA from the University of Maryland in 1927, taught English at the Belmont Hill School in Boston a few years, earned a Masters in English Literature from Harvard University in 1931 and ended up working for the Frederick A. Stokes publishing company. It was there he developed an interest in writing and illustrating children's book, something he did for 40 years.

His most famous work is The Story of Ferdinand (1936) which he wrote in one sitting. It tells the story of a large gentle bull on a farm in Spain who is stung by a bee. His violent reaction to the sting impresses a man looking to aggressive bulls for bull fighting. He happily buys Ferdinand who is sent to the ring, but won't fight. He wants to smell flowers. The story ends with Ferdinand being taken back to his farm where he sits under the cork tree smelling flowers. The book sold 14,000 copies in 1936, 68,000 in 1937, and with 150,000 sold in 1938, beat Gone With the Wind as the top selling book in America. To date, the book has never been out of print. In 1939, his book Wee Gillis, was listed as a Caldecott Honor Book. The story tells of a boy living in Scotland halfway between his father's family in the Highlands and his mother's in the Lowlands.
