Artist Talk featuring Muralist Rafael Blanco Recap

Rafael Blanco, muralist who painted "Lester Bowie" mural at 69 S Market St, spoke on the power of public art last week at The YMCA Ausherman Arts Center. This enlightening and inspirational presentation gave insight to the impact of the arts and embracing your circumstances in order to achieve your passion.

Blanco is back in Frederick working on a new mural at 168 W. All Saints St. Thanks to the Ausherman Family Foundation for supporting this artist talk

Professional Development Retreat:
Engaging the Senses April 26th

A rejuvenating day of connection, reflection, and creative renewal in the peaceful setting of a working farm. This retreat combines immersive nature experiences with collaborative professional development, allowing participants to step away from their busy schedules, reconnect with their creative practice, and build meaningful relationships with peers across the Mid-Atlantic region.

Set against the backdrop of spring's renewal, participants will explore the connections between nature, mindfulness, and artistic practice through guided experiences, including an herb farm tour with tea tasting. Between structured activities, teaching artists will have dedicated time for collaborative work, informal networking, and personal reflection.

This retreat is ideal for teaching artists seeking balance, inspiration, and community as they prepare for the busy season ahead. Participants will leave feeling refreshed, connected, and ready to bring renewed energy to their work.

INSPIRED BY CLAIRE McCARDELL
An Art Exhibit Honoring the Legendary Fashion Designer
Exhibit May 3rd-29th
Opening Reception May 3rd, 2-4p

Artists have gathered their “inspired” work for an authentic, in-person exhibit open to the public. It will take place at City Hall of Frederick, May 3-29, with an opening reception on May 3 2-4 pm. The artists are Colleen Clapp, Marion Griffin, Jane Dunsmore, Linda Moran, Karen Peacock, Mary Ryan Reeves, Cristy Stup and Sarah Hempl Irani. All art on display is for sale. Claire gave the “Inspired” artists plenty of inspiration. Her groundbreaking designs in the 1930s, 40s, and 50s literally changed the way women dress. Her styles are as contemporary today as they were then—separates, clothing with pockets, wrap dresses, ballet flats, fabulous yet affordable fabrics. Active women could live from day into evening in her practical yet sophisticated fashions.
