Registration is now open for the 2025 Main Street Maryland Conference. We hope you will join us from October 7-8, 2025, in Downtown Easton, MD. Maryland's Main Streets are the heart of our most vibrant and welcoming communities. This year's conference promises to be an inspiring and informative day for Main Street partners, stakeholders, and economic developers.

The theme this year, Great Places Win: Powering People, Places, and Possibility, celebrates the energy, innovation, and collaboration that drive Maryland's Main Streets forward. We're turning the spotlight toward the people, places, and ideas that make these downtowns vibrant, resilient, and full of potential.

Join us for two days of engaging discussions, including a keynote address, IGNITE presentations, TEDx-style talks, local field trips and excursions, and more! To register for the 2025 Main Street Maryland Conference, click here.

The National String Symphonia at New Spire Arts

Featuring musical compositions by Charlie Barnett, a local Montgomery County composer, his rich background in jazz, film, and classical music has been brought to this colorful suite for string orchestra. The Fireman's Carnival. Full of nostalgic Americana, the piece invites listeners to step into the world of a small-town summer carnival—complete with flickering lights, distant music, and the warm buzz of community celebration. Additional musical selections will also be performed by composers Leroy Anderson (Plink, Plunk and Arietta), Alan Hovhaness (Celestial Fantasy, Op. 44), and Lou Harrison (Suite for Symphonic Strings).

Single Player Game

Sarah Ernst

September 6 – 28

Opening Reception Saturday Sept 6, 4- 8pm

The work in Single Player Game comes out of little epiphanies Ernst has had doing mundane life tasks while navigating complex life events in the wild world. This work is gritty with a sense of humor and unveiled honesty. This work is created by cobbling seemingly unrelated elements into compositions that become deeply relatable visual conversations.
