INDIVIDUAL ARTIST FEATURE

Multimedia, Painting, Visual / Media

Juliet Drake Hossain spent the first part of her creative life in the performing arts, working in music, theatre and film. She obtained a B.F.A. in Performance from Hofstra University in 2002, and professionally acted until the birth of her two children. She now works out of her studio in historic downtown Frederick. Her favorite tools are her paintbrushes and her Glowforge laser cutter, and her best inspirations are her vibrant children, space imagery, theatrical themes, nature and the contemplation of self.

Frederick Cultural Asset Survey and Art at City Hall

The City of Frederick is embarking on an arts and culture strategic planning process. To begin, the City is excited to ask residents to help identify the cultural touchstones — formal and informal arts and culture-related organizations, businesses, venues, local landmarks, and more — that mean something to you. Help create a community-developed list of places you visit and resources you use that have cultural value to you.
