Help Us Direct American Rescue Plan ESSER Funding to Local Arts Education

As FAC Members and Arts Advocates, we kindly ask that you take a minute to fill out this survey from Frederick County Public Schools which will help determine their allocation of American Rescue Plan ESSER funding.

Arts students and arts educators need our support to demonstrate that there is a strong desire in the community to fund and support arts education in light of pandemic-related challenges.

Links below lead to the survey and to a document with talking points related to the pandemic and arts education.

The survey closes Tuesday, August 3rd.

FAC's Arts in Education Grants Now Open

The Frederick Arts Council has an annual arts in education fund from which it awards matching grants to schools and other educational entities. The purpose of these grants is to enable teachers and program specialists to enhance their arts curricula by drawing upon the talents of artists and arts organizations in our community.

Schools and other educational institutions in Frederick County are eligible for Arts in Education grants. Schools may submit up to two grants each academic year; the maximum amount of each grant is typically $500 and must be matched 1:1.

Grants are accepted on a rolling basis until the annual budget has been exhausted. It is strongly encouraged that grant applications be submitted at least 30 days prior to the planned arts activity.

Dedicated to the Art, Business, and Craft of Writing Since 1988

Author: Marcia Talley

Genre: Mystery

"When I wrote my first book, I had no idea I was writing a series." – Marcia Talley

Marcia Talley is the Agatha and Anthony award-winning author of eighteen Hannah Ives mysteries, including DONE GONE and TANGLED ROOTS.

She was born in Cleveland, Ohio, but, as a Marine Officer's child, spent the first eighteen years of her life bouncing about the planet—from Ohio to California, China, New York, Virginia, Kansas and Taiwan. She received her BA from Oberlin College where she met her future husband, Barry, in a campus dining hall. After graduation, the couple moved to Baltimore, where Marcia taught 6th grade and Barry earned his doctorate in music. In 1971, they settled in scenic, historic Annapolis when Barry was appointed Director of Musical Activities at the Naval Academy. Marcia accepted a job at St. John's College (the famous Great Books school) and earned her M.L.S. from the University of Maryland in 1981.

Her first book, Sing It To Her Bones, introduces her sleuth, Hannah Ives. She's wearing a wig and her heart on her sleeve after a frightening bout with breast cancer and so vacations in a small Chesapeake Bay town. However, instead of finding relaxation, Hannah finds the body of a long dead girl. At the end of that novel, we learn that Hannah has a grown daughter and is expecting her first grandchild. That was twenty-two years and also 18 books ago. Through the next seventeen novels, Hannah gradually ages, emerging from successful breast cancer treatment and in the true spirit of carpe diem, gets on with her life. In each novel, Hannah has a different "sidekick": her artist sister-in-law, Connie; Nadine Gray, a retired best-selling mystery writer; her neighbor on pristine Hawksbill Cay, septuagenarian Molly Weston. Talley says, "If I knew all those years ago that I was writing a series, I would have made Hannah much younger!"

She is editor/author of NAKED CAME THE PHOENIX, a star-studded, tongue-in-cheek collaborative serial novel about murder in a fashionable health spa.

Her story "Driven to Distraction" won the Agatha Award for Best Short Story was nominated for an Anthony. She received the Agatha Award two more times. Marcia is a past national President of Sisters in Crime, Inc., serves on the board of the Mid-Atlantic Chapter of the Mystery Writers of America and is a member of the Authors' Guild. She has two grown daughters and six grandchildren.

Genre: Mystery – Focuses on the efforts of a detective, private investigator, or amateur sleuth to solve the mysterious circumstances of a problem or crime, usually a mysterious death. The plot often centers on the deductive ability, prowess, confidence, or diligence of the detective as they attempt to unravel the crime or situation.

Links Bridge Vineyard Seeks Local

Artists Interested in Exhibiting

Links Bridge Vineyards is a small vineyard and winery located 20 minutes from downtown Frederick. They enjoy featuring the work of local artists on the walls of their tasting room. A recent exhibit by Marcelo Novo from Washington DC was described in the 72 Hours section of the Frederick News Post. The next scheduled exhibit is photography by Michael Farnham featuring some local Maryland and Frederick County landscapes.

Links Bridge Vineyards does not take a commission on artwork sold but does appreciate it if you are willing to schedule a time in which you are present to give an Artist Talk about your work.

Links Bridge Vineyards is one of the newer wineries in Frederick County. It specializes in small batches of mostly estate wines, with aspirations to become 100% estate wines in a few years. It receives high reviews from its guests for the wine and the ambiance.

Lend a Hand: Buckets of Hope

The Muse & artists Whitney Dahlberg & Courtney Prah are launching the 10th annual Lend a Hand Art Auction! This year we have chosen City Youth Matrix as our beneficiary.

City Youth Matrix is a community organization whose goal is to remove accessibility barriers so that all youth can experience life to the fullest. They assist families with limited resources in accessing extracurricular activities so that their children's lives can be enriched. City Youth Matrix focuses on removing financial, transportation and cultural barriers to ensure all children are given the same opportunities.

-For 2021, our theme is Hope! Lend a Hand by creating a piece of art inspired by a fellow community member's hope for the year. At The Muse, we will have a bucket filled with hopes jotted down by members of the community. When you pick up your canvas, we'll have you draw a hope from the bucket. Use your hope as inspiration for your artwork contribution!

-People of all ages and skill levels are encouraged to participate, and all mediums are accepted. Art will be auctioned off in the fall with all sales going to the charity. The closing date of the auction will be during First Saturday, Oct 2nd from 5-9pm.

-A $20 nonrefundable entry fee includes the canvas & goes directly to City Youth Matrix

-All pieces must be delivered to The Muse, 19 N Market St, no later than Aug 15th at 5 pm.

-By submitting your work to The Muse, you are agreeing to allow The Muse to take full ownership over the piece until the time of sale. That includes the allowance of use for marketing purposes.

THE LOOK OF THINGS

Coming through the last year has changed us. This body of work, some ethereal and ephemeral and others bright and hard edged reflect the day to day changes of my internal landscape. The printing processes are also different, some are relief and others are monotypes, also a mirror to the way things looked. andreamccluskey.wordpress.com

STICKS & STONES

This body of work is about aging, death and the tenacity of life in the face of adversity. The story told through gnarled roots, windswept rocks and weathered wood. Exhibition includes unique etching and drypoint prints and mixed media sculptures.

Due to the pandemic and my subsequent retirement, I found myself with a wealth of time to spend in my studio. Unlike past exhibitions, I did not have a specific theme in mind, although many months later, one began to emerge. Therefore, I decided to use this time to play, to experiment with tools and materials previously absent in my work...such as palette knives, spray paint, markers, etc. These paintings are the result of that exercise.
