New Spire Stages Lobby Mural Complete

FAC is proud to announce that its latest public art project, located in the front lobby of the New Spire Stages theatre, is complete.

The mural by artist Leila Eguino expresses the joy and energy behind performing arts, as well as a meditation on the role of the artist by writer James Baldwin. Please take a moment to observe next time you attend New Spire Stages for a performance!

Funding for this project was provided by the Ausherman Family Foundation.

Missed our Artist Talk with Pamela Moulton?

Check out the video below that Pamela Moulton shared during her December 16th Artist Talk!

"Beneath the Forest," like much of Moulton's previous work, fosters an ethos of generosity and creative exchange. The exhibit's energetic sculptures and woven installations cultivate habitats for the imagination that raise awareness about our planet, offering windows of hope.

"Beneath the Forest" is on view at FAC's Art Center until February 15, 2023.

PAMELA MOULTON: BENEATH THE FOREST

“Beneath the Forest,” like much of Moulton’s previous work, fosters an ethos of generosity and creative exchange. The energetic sculptures and woven installations cultivate habitats for the imagination that raise awareness about our planet, offering windows of hope. Discarded materials such as fishing nets, hair curlers, lost mittens, heirloom gloves, and bottlecaps are reassembled, reorganized, and reinvented into new forms. The result brings into focus connections between many different types of human communities as well as with the precious natural world.

For more information on Pamela Moulton, visit
<https://www.pamelamoulton.art/>.

"Beneath the Forest" is on view at FAC's Art Center at 5 East 2nd Street in downtown Frederick.

Nicole Abuhmada

Expectations

The Mary Condon Hodgson Gallery will be exhibiting 13 oil paintings with accompanying poems written and painted by interdisciplinary artist Nicole Abuhmada. The series is called Notional Ekphrasis.

"Notional ekphrasis may describe mental processes such as dreams, thoughts and whimsies of the imagination. It may also be one art describing or depicting another work of art which as yet is still in an inchoate state of creation, in that the work described may still be resting in the imagination of the artist before they have begun his creative work."

The gallery is located through the front doors of the Visual Arts Center at Frederick Community College, parking in front lot. This exhibition is free and open to the public.

Questions? Call, text, or email Nicole Abuhmada at 301.676.7863, nicole@nicoleabuhmada.com

Artist Opportunity: Artist of the Month Program with Cowork Frederick

Cowork Frederick's Artist of the Month program supports up-and-coming local Frederick County artists by providing them an opportunity to exhibit and sell their work without the usual commission or fees. The program also brings ever-changing local art to the walls of Cowork Frederick for a more creative, vibrant work environment.

As part of the program, artists participate in a Frederick Artists Night (FAN) event with an exhibit and reception open to the public, along with live music from local singer-songwriters.

Cowork Frederick is particularly interested in artists who may not have had a chance to have an exhibition of their own yet.

The FREDERICK FLUTE CHOIR has been performing locally and regionally for 32 years:

Do you love playing the flute?

Do you have college and/or professional experience?

Are you interested in becoming a member?

If so, please contact Vicki Crum at vickicrum@gmail.com.

Life in the Theatre & Café Society

Art works by Johnny Memphis

Exhibition runs Dec. 3, 2022—Jan. 1, 2023

Gaslight Gallery

Johnny Memphis is an artist who has traveled the world as a musician, photographer, painter, journalist, teamster, and jack of all trades. He began his artistic journey busking on Beale Street in Memphis. He moved on to New Orleans, Cape Cod, and west to Los Angeles to perform in well-known clubs like The Troubadour and Gazzari's. Johnny traveled to Europe and began photographing street scenes that reminded him of his old homestead in the French Quarter of New Orleans. When he had an offer in the late '90s to move to Philadelphia, his first stop was the New Hope art colony in Bucks County, PA. During one of his musical performances, he met his muse – the late Mrs. Lilius Barger, who held weekly Grand Salons of classical music at her home in Carversville, PA. She encouraged his painting and critiqued his work until the end. His folk style of painting street scenes and theatrical venues is reminiscent of his Beale Street roots. His visions are gritty streets and splendid performance halls, extremes that converge where people gather to share and experience life.
