Make Your Voice Heard: Help MSAC build the future of the Independent Artist Award!

This fall, MSAC is facilitating a public-led revision of the Independent Artist Award (IAA) program, which has recognized achievement by Maryland artists making work independent of institutions or organizations. This revision effort is based on data collected since 2020 from applicants, panelists, and award winners, who have made suggestions on how to improve the IAA program's service to the public. The next step of this process is to identify a panel of editors who will work with MSAC staff to further refine the suggestions into clear policy recommendations, which will be carefully considered as MSAC further develops the IAA program.

All selected editors will be expected to:

- Become familiar with previously collected data and current MSAC efforts to support artists through the IAA program.
- Work with MSAC staff to consider how to improve the service of the IAA program to Maryland artists in light of other MSAC opportunities, including the Grants for Artists program, set to pilot in winter 2023.
- Participate in at least two virtual meetings discussing the above issues and developing procedure and policy recommendations for further consideration by MSAC staff, council, and Department of Commerce leadership.

What MSAC is looking for:

- Maryland artists with backgrounds in a variety of disciplines (e.g., literary, performing, visual, media, and traditional arts, etc.), or who are interested in learning how changes are considered and implemented within MSAC.
- IAA winners, applicants, and panelists from the past three years are strongly encouraged to apply.

Applications are accepted until Friday, November 11, 2022. Apply now!

Artist Opportunity: Artist of the Month Program with Cowork Frederick

Cowork Frederick's Artist of the Month program supports up-and-coming local Frederick County artists by providing them an opportunity to exhibit and sell their work without the usual commission or fees. The program also brings ever-changing local art to the walls of Cowork Frederick for a more creative, vibrant work environment.

As part of the program, artists participate in a Frederick Artists Night (FAN) event with an exhibit and reception open to the public, along with live music from local singer-songwriters.

Cowork Frederick is particularly interested in artists who may not have had a chance to have an exhibition of their own yet.

National String Symphonia Presents: Tchaikovsky: Serenade

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 2022
4:00 PM
NEW SPIRE STAGES

Tchaikovsky. Even those unfamiliar with "classical" music know that name. His music for The Nutcracker may be some of the best-known and best-loved music ever written. His ballets Swan Lake and Sleeping Beauty are cornerstones of the dance repertoire, while the 1812 Overture (which features, among other instruments, a battery of cannon!) has accompanied countless fireworks displays around the world for years. Composed at the same time as the 1812 Overture, his Serenade is arguably the most popular of all works for string orchestra.

In addition to Tchaikovsky's Serenade, the NSS will also perform pieces by Frank BRIDGE ("Two Old English Songs"), Adrienne ALBERT ("Boundaries"), and Karl JENKINS ("Palladio").
