Artist Opportunity: Artist of the Month Program with Cowork Frederick

Cowork Frederick's Artist of the Month program supports up-and-coming local Frederick County artists by providing them an opportunity to exhibit and sell their work without the usual commission or fees. The program also brings ever-changing local art to the walls of Cowork Frederick for a more creative, vibrant work environment.

As part of the program, artists participate in a Frederick Artists Night (FAN) event with an exhibit and reception open to the public, along with live music from local singer-songwriters.

Cowork Frederick is particularly interested in artists who may not have had a chance to have an exhibition of their own yet.

Interested? Apply at <https://coworkfrederickfoundation.org/artist-of-the-month-sign-up/>.

Erika Robuck – Illuminating the Shadows of History

Author: Erika Robuck

Genre: Historical Fiction

“Women have the strength to do what is needed to be done.”

Erika Robuck

Erika Robuck by Nick Woodall

Erika Robuck is the national bestselling author of Receive Me Falling, Hemingway's Girl, eight other historical novels and her latest titled, The Last Twelve Miles. She reveals the story of women living in the shadows of history.

Her interest in writing began as a child with poetry, plays, songs, and short stories. Writing novels in middle and high school resulted in a minor in literature in college. When children began to arrive, she elected to stay home with them and found time to write which cemented her love of novels.

Erika's current interest in writing novels about women living in the shadows of history was initially only a desire to portray women living in the shadow of great authors. In one of her first novels, Hemingway's Girl, her protagonist is a fictional housekeeper at the Hemingway House at Key West, Florida. Through the housekeeper's eyes, Erika makes the reader an eyewitness to Hemingway's life; a life she researched and wrote about for three years.
